Bounty Program

The bounty programs are carried out before the actual ICO. They are usually done to get the buzz going and to give the cryptocurrency project an improved presence on social media platforms. It is all about creating awareness for the cryptocurrency ICO and to get the word-of-mouth going. The framework is such that informal advertising channels are utilized to increase market penetration. The aim of such bounties is that as participants go about carrying out the various activities, the people in their circle begin to know more about the cryptocurrency. DDK Platform is providing a phase by phase "distribution" of Bounty Program from the allocation on-hand.

These bounty programs could be promoted and posted in our own DDK Forum Discussion (<https://forums.ddkoin.com/forum/bounty-contest>). We give this further opportunity towards the existing community from Pre-ICOs for most of our users/community, who are active in social media. We offer huge allocation of bounty rewards for this. We take this opportunity to promote using social media by offering good and interactive bounty program.
